REPORT DATE: 06/06/2022 12:43:00

On June 6th, 2022 Officer Adams and Sgt Tracy were in the Nelsonville Mexican parking lot when they were pulled over by Chief Fitch that a male was riding a red motorcycle on Wetlands Street without a valid Motorcycle license and that Nelsonville PD has had multiple complaints about this issue. Officer Adams and Sgt Tracy witnessed Bobby Hunt getting off his bike and fast walking inside his house located at 537 Patton Street in Nelsonville. Officer Adams knocked several times on the front door while Sgt Tracy attempted the back door of the residence. Chief Fitch arrived on scene and ran the Motorcycles plates through dispatch and they did in fact come back to Bobby Hunt who did not have a valid Motorcycle license after multiple knocks Mr. Hunt came to the front door and was asked to provide his driver license he who did not have a valid Motorcycle license and Mr. Hunt stated "No I don't have my Temps yet". His girlfriend Ashley Klinedinst stated that "He has just been driving it around to practice". Officer Adams ran Mr. Hunt's Driver License again through dispatch to confirm that Mr. Hunt did not have a valid Motorcycle license and it came back once again not valid. A tow truck was requested to the scene to take possession of the motorcycle. Mr. Hunt was advised by Officer Adams that he would be receiving a traffic ticket for operating the motorcycle without a license while Officer Adams was in the cruiser writing this ticket Mr. Hunt and Ms. Klinedinst can be heard on body camera arguing with Chief Fitch and Sgt Tracy about the situation. Mr. Hunt was then issued his traffic ticket and given his Nelsonville Mayor's Court Date for June 14th, 2022 at 6:00pm and asked to appear. Mr. Hunt became angry at the fact that his bike was getting towed and could be held in the background making remarks about the Officers and situation. Mr. Hunt began to make statements about Chief Fitch's appearance calling him overweight and stating that Officers would have to "Shoot him or take him after he was done with them". Mr. Hunt was warned multiple times by Chief Fitch to stop Mr. Hunt from his front porch stating that he is "wearing a hoodie don't shoot" and that his hands are very capable of handling us" at that point Mr. Hunt was placed under arrest for persistent disorderly conduct. Mr. Hunt attempted to pull away from Officer Adams as he was being cuffing and set free. Ms. Klinedinst comes off the porch to get in the way of Officer Adams and Chief Fitch while they were attempting to place Mr. Hunt under Arrest. Chief Fitch then places Mr. Hunt in the cruiser at that point Ms. Klinedinst opens the back of the cruiser door and is then placed under arrest for Obstructing Justice and disorderly Ms. Klinedinst resisted arrest multiple times and began to start screaming for "Dale". Children Services was contacted due to there being a baby in the house unsupervised. Officer Adams and Sgt Tracy entered the house to check the well being of the child the child was crying and in distress. Officer Adams then transported Mr. Hunt to the Nelsonville Police department to be placed in the holding cell while Sgt Tracy and chief Fitch stayed on scene for Children services. Officer Preston with the Rockland County Police Department transported Ms. Klinedinst to SEORJ at their arrival Ms. Klinedinst stated that she was pregnant the self advised that they would not be able to hold her if that was true Officer Adams was called Chief Fitch to meet Officer Preston and transport Ms. Klinedinst to the Nelsonville Urgent care where she was found to be pregnant and positive for COVID 19. Officer Adams was then advised to release Ms. Klinedinst and transport her back to her residence and change her and give her a court date. Ms. Klinedinst was dropped off at her residence and Officer Adams then made back in service.
